The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this Product compared to other Products. It shows how likely it is that the Product will lose money

We have classified this Product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class.

Be aware of currency risk. If the currency of your account is different from the currency of this Product, the payments you will get depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above. Because the Product currency is different from the reference currency of the Fund, you will be exposed to the fluctuations between those currencies.

Other risks materially relevant to the Product not included in the summary risk indicator:

- Counterparty Risk: this risk is associated with the ability of a counterparty in an Over The Counter financial transaction to fulfil its commitments like payment, delivery and reimbursement.
- Credit risk: the risk that the creditworthiness of an issuer may deteriorate or that it may default, potentially causing the value of the associated instruments to fall.
- Risk linked to the use of financial derivative instruments: these instruments may involve a range of risks that may affect the net asset value.
- Liquidity risk: this risk arises from the difficulty of selling a security at its fair value and within a reasonable period of time due to a lack of buyers.

For additional details regarding the risks, please refer to the prospectus.

This Product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

GLOSSARY

Tracking Error

The tracking error measures the volatility of a portfolio's relative return in relation to its benchmark index.

Volatility

An asset's volatility is the standard deviation of its return. As a measure of dispersion, it evaluates the uncertainty of asset prices, which is often equated to their risk. Volatility can be calculated ex post (retrospectively) or estimated ex ante (anticipatively).
